

Barn Believers Project Fund (BBPF)

GRANT APPLICATION

Note: To be considered, a structure must be or have been a traditional barn, i.e., used for direct agricultural purposes (livestock, animal feed, and farm use) and have been built prior to 1950.

Date of application _____

Organization seeking support _____

Contact information for person completing application _____

Please provide additional detail as an attachment about your organization to include years in existence, mission, activities, membership levels, financials, current officers and accomplishments, great or small. Your summary need not be lengthy.

If you are seeking support relating to a barn, please tell us about the barn: age, dimensions, condition, history, current use. Provide photos. These may be scanned images.

Documentation of organization 501c3 status _____

Mailing address _____

Phone number(s) _____

Social media sites _____

Project for which BBPF support is sought (attach additional information as appropriate).

Describe the proposed project (pages may be added) _____

Who is your audience? _____

Why is this work important? _____

When and where will this project take place? _____

How will you document outcomes and what you are learning that may be of help to others? _____

The total amount sought from BBPF cannot exceed $5,000. Evidence of commitment of additional sources of support will be viewed favorably.

Total anticipated cost of project _____ Amount sought from BBPF _____

Other sources of support secured _____

Other sources of support sought _____

If you have questions about the application, please direct them to the BBPF via our website, www.barnbelievers.org and we will be in touch. You may return a completed application to us via the website, or mail to: Barn Believers Project Fund c/o Jan Corey Arnett, 2444 W. Halbert Road, Battle Creek, Michigan 49017

The Barn Believers Project Fund is a fund held by Encourage BC of the Battle Creek Community Foundation

